

Mendel
University in Brno

Mendel University in Brno
Zemědělská 1, 61300 Brno
mendelu.cz/en
Czech Republic

Mendel University in Brno

- Established in 1919
- The oldest independent University of its kind in the Czech Republic
- Named after Gregor Johann MENDEL (1822-1884)
the botanist and founder of modern genetics who lived and did his research in Brno

Gregor Mendel

Campus in Brno

- two main university campuses, Brno and Lednice
- 5 faculties and Institute of Life-long Learning
- A wide range of degrees and subjects in English
- 9 500 students, approx. 1,000 international students

Campus in Lednice

Faculty
of AgriSciences

Faculty
of Horticulture

Faculty
of Forestry and Wood
Technology

Faculty
of Regional Development and International Studies

Faculty
of Business and Economics

Institute of Lifelong Learning

- Established and reputable educational agricultural institution
- Plant production
- Animal Breeding,
- Environmental Protection
- Waste Management
- Agricultural Engineering
- Botany
- Chemistry

- Faculty and Training Forest Enterprise Masaryk Forest Křtiny
- Landscape Management and Engineering
- Forestry
- Wood Science and Technology
- Furniture Design Wood-based Constructions
- Game Management
- Arboristics

- Economics and Management
- Tourism Management
- Automation Management and Informatics
- Finances
- Marketing
- Accounting and Taxes
- Agriculture and Food Management

- Located in Lednice, area listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site
- Purpose-designed facilities: cellars, greenhouses, laboratories, orchards, vineyards
- Viticulture and Oenology
- Horticulture
- Landscape and Garden Management and Architecture

- modern and international faculty preparing experts for solutions of regional development problems requiring multidisciplinary competences
- Regional Development
- International Territorial Studies

Bachelor (undergraduate)

- Business Economics and Management
- Regional Development
- International Territorial Studies
- General Agriculture

Master (graduate)

- European Studies in Business and Economics
- Regional Development
- International Territorial Studies
- European Forestry
- Fruit Science

PhD. (postgraduate)

- Agricultural Chemistry
- Molecular Biology and Genetics of Animals
- Plant Anatomy and Physiology
- Economics and Management
- Forest Ecology
- Forest Phytology
- Horticulture

- Grounds for practical demonstration, training and research
- Experimental forest stands, greenhouses, forest nurseries, game preserve, a saw mill, mechanised log depot, and other establishments for educational and research purposes
- Since 1997, holder of the FSC Certificate for Forestry
- Over 10,000 hectares of forestland
- About a third of the TFE area situated within the Protected Landscape Area of the Moravian Karst

- The oldest enterprise of its kind in the Czech Republic
- Demonstration fields and farms of the University for practical training and research

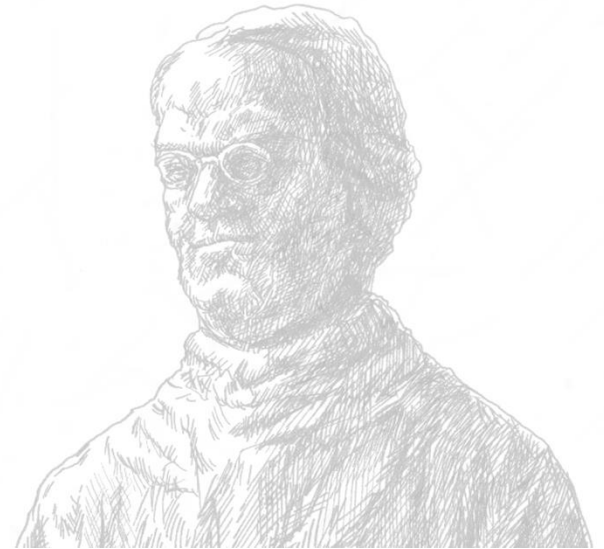

- established by Prof. Ing. A. Bayer in 1938
- Present 11 hectars garden is dated since 1967
- Orchid collection with more than 1,500 natural species and 3,000 hybrids, 500 alpine plants, 2,000 perennials and 4,000 trees in the outdoor area

- Almost 100 years of tradition
- Multidisciplinary studies
- Strong international cooperation
- More than 600 courses
- 70 specialized laboratories
- CEITEC
- ECTS Label
- H2020 and ERC projects holders

Thank you for your attention.

Jean-Michel